

ENGLISH DEBATERS TO MEET AMERICANS

Collegians to Match Oratorical Abilities With Leading Colleges Here.

OXFORD, England, Sept. 3.—Having tried their physical skill against American university men, Oxford men are now going to test their intellectual abilities against the collegians of America.

The Oxford Union will send a debating team to the United States early in September to debate with Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, New York University, Columbia, Bates and Swarthmore.

The subjects for discussion will include foreign politics and industrial problems.

E. M. Lindsay, ex-president of the Oxford Union, will head the Oxford team. Lindsay is an active member of the English Labor party and is largely responsible for the formation of the University Labor club.

E. Marjoribanks, an Etonian and a nephew of Lord Tweedmouth, will also be a member of the team; he is the leader of the Tories in Oxford, a classical scholar and a League carman.

M. C. Hollis, a Balliol scholar, a Liberal and a Chartistian national, will complete the team.

Alsace-Lorraine Offsets French Race Suicide

PARIS, Sept. 3.—Despite constant editorials bawling French race suicide, the official census total published in the Journal Officiel shows that the addition of Alsace and Lorraine has made up for the deficit of births. The 1922 population is 29,209,666.

$2 Bill Jinx Puts Him—No. 5 NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Others may scoff at "jinxes," but not 17-year-old Erick McDonald, a negro boy, living at No. 54 West Ninety-ninth street. Erick was taken to the Children's Society after he had been arrested, according to the police, in the act of burglarizing a show case in front of the Big Store at No. 308 Sixth avenue. The boy passed the store and noticed about a dozen $2 bills pasted on the inside of a show case to advertise a sale. The police say he returned and with a penknife cut the putty from a glass panel, and with five of the $2 bills on the glass started away. Patrolman Frank Nan saw him working at the show case.

Mothers Get $20 for Each Babe Born, Rush Season is Expensive

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—Each visit the stork pays to the Edgar Gengenbach farm, in Southeast Missouri, the mother receives a check for $20 from Gengenbach, of this city. Three checks went forward from here last month to the cotton farm where there are about 30 negro tenants.

Secrets of the Movies Revealed

Q.—Will the new policy of filming a story on location finally supersede the older method of building sets in the studio?

A.—Although the tendency today is to go outside the studio for location, as has been done in some of the more recent super-productions, there are still many directors who maintain that the same results can be obtained it's all right. I regard it as a good investment, to say nothing of the satisfaction afforded by real practical warfare work. I have been more than repaid by the loyalty and faithful service of the negroes on my place."

STRIKE NOT TO HURT AUTO INDUSTRY SAYS HUPP SALES MANAGER

In spite of the critical aspect of the railroad strike situation, Fred B. Sides, assistant sales manager of the Hupp Motor Car Corp., on a hurried trip into Indiana and Kentucky last week found much to encourage the automobile manufacturer.

The labor difficulty, in his opinion, is practically the only remaining obstacle in the country's march toward prosperity which was so impressively begun several months ago.

Indiana with splendid crops, according to the information Mr. Sides received from Huppmobile representatives, promises one of the best buying fall seasons in years.

In Kentucky, he was told that, the tobacco crop will be exceptionally large; the demand promises to far exceed the available supply, and there is every reason to expect better prices and more prosperity for the tobacco growers.

In Louisville, he was told by one of the Southern representatives for Huppmobile that everywhere South of the Mason and Dixon Line, and East of the Mississippi, the situation is more encouraging this year than for several years past.

The confidence which the local Huppmobile men, in the territory mentioned, have in the general situation is manifested, Mr. Sides points out, by the absence of any slowing up in demand such as that which might logically be expected to follow the grave labor controversy and its ramifications of the last few weeks.

Pig With Eight Legs
Born on Farm in Ohio

URBANA, Ohio, Sept. 3.—(By I. N. S.)—If "pigs is pigs," what is a pig with eight legs?

All other members of the litter were perfectly formed.

BLACKSTONE

"Smiling Through" the big dramatic sensation with Norma Talmadge and Harrison Ford heading a sterling cast, got away to a flying start at the Blackstone Sunday and today's holiday crowd is expected to again pack the big Blackstone theater to its doors. "Smiling Through" came to South Bend heralded as the biggest and best motion picture Norma Talmadge ever made. According to the verdict of the thousands who saw the picture Sunday, it lives up to this great reputation and will rank as one of the greatest three or four pictures of all times.

Miss Talmadge first appears as Mooney, affianced to John Carteret in the stirring days at the close of the Civil war. As the wedding of this pair is about to be consummated, a rival fires a bullet at Carteret and accidentally strikes and kills the beautiful Mooney.

At this turn the picture takes a turn and the remainder of the film is devoted to the romantic adventure of Kathleen, a niece of Mooney. Through a strange trick of Fate, she falls in love with the son of the man who killed the beautiful Mooney.

Q.—What is Colleen Moore's full name?

A.—Colleen Moore's visiting card bears the inscription, Colleen Mollan Moore.

Q.—What actor was not permitted by the role on which he was engaged to have his hair cut for three months?

A.—Richard Dix, has had to forego the luxury of a hair cut for over three months because the role of John Storm, in the "Christian," demands that he allow his hair to grow to usual length.

Q.—Are Helene Chadwick and Cyril Chadwick related?

A.—In spite of the similarity of their names, Helene and Cyril Chadwick are not related.

Q.—Who had the leading masculine role in "The Girl Who Ran Wild," the screen play of Bret Hart's story, "M'Liss"?

A.—Joseph Dowling, who took the part of the miracle man in the great screen play of that name.

What pictures are the surest successes for the screen according to a prominent director? The answer to this question will be printed tomorrow.

CASTLE

For those who are spending Labor day at home, the Castle management has arranged a special treat in the form of a great picture starring Robert Warwick. "The Silent Master" is the name of the production and it's a gripping, stirring drama of big business with a pretty love story intertwined about the big thrill scenes.

AUDITORIUM

In "The Conquest of Canaan," showing at the Auditorium today Thomas Meighan, the star, has an opportunity for some of the best work of his motion picture career.

As Joe Loudon, Mr. Meighan plays the part of an outcasted youth—a member of the so-called "other half" in Canaan, a typical middle western town with its provincial likes and dislikes and its "society."

He loves Ariel Tabor, who also belongs to the same strata of unrespectables, but life for them is a garden. Ariel's uncle dies and she goes to Paris, so Joe goes away to study law. He returns to conquer Canaan and his problems give Mr. Meighan a splendid opportunity to display his talents. Doris Kenyon is the leading lady for Mr. Meighan and the story is taken from Booth Tarkington's novel of the same name.

A comedy, "Safe in the Safe," will also be shown.
